BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS SPONSORS FRIENDLY HOURS AT THE CHILDREN'S MUSEUM'S ANNUAL HAUNTED HOUSE

INDIANAPOLIS (Tuesday, Oct. 14, 2008) – Bright House Networks again sponsors friendly hours this year as the 45th annual Children's Museum Guild's Haunted House welcomes young visitors for a 21-day run.

Friendly hours are designed for preschool-age children and those who scare easily. During friendly hours, young visitors can tour the Haunted House with all lights on and all the scary costumes gone. Children's music is also played throughout the house.

This year, The Children's Museum Guild with the help of museum staff has created a fun and interactive experience aboard the Eerie Express. Frances the Friendly Witch, the newest Haunted House mascot, greets and interacts with young passengers waiting to board the train.

"We're excited to sponsor friendly hours again this year at the museum's Haunted House," said Buz Nesbit, president of Bright House Networks Indiana. "It's important that younger children have an age-appropriate experience and be able to enjoy such a great, traditional exhibit at The Children's Museum."

The Haunted House opened Saturday and runs through Oct. 31 at The Children's Museum, located at 3000 N. Meridian St. in Indianapolis.

Friendly hours are:

11 a.m.-5 p.m. Sundays, Oct. 12, 19 and 26
3:30-9 p.m. Tuesdays, Oct. 14, 21 and 28
10 a.m.-3 p.m. Wednesdays, Oct. 15, 22 and 29
10 a.m.-3 p.m. Thursdays, Oct. 16, 23 and 30
10 a.m.-3 p.m. Saturdays, Oct. 11, 18 and 25

Tickets for the Haunted House are available at Marsh Supermarkets and at AAA branch locations for $5.50; at the door for $6.50 ($6 for museum members); or online at www.childrensmuseum.org.
