$500 SCHOLARSHIP AWAITS WINNERS OF BRIGHT HOUSE NETWORKS' 2008 HOLIDAY CARD CONTEST

INDIANAPOLIS (Monday, Oct. 20, 2007) – Elementary, middle and high school student-artists can win a $500 scholarship from Bright House Networks if their original, holiday-themed artwork is selected for the cover design of the company's 2008 holiday card.

Beginning today, Bright House Networks will accept entries for its 2008 Holiday Card Contest. This year's holiday cards will be sent by the digital cable, high-speed Internet and digital phone services provider to civic and community leaders in December.

Winners in each of three categories will be announced Dec. 3. Categories include elementary (kindergarten through grade 5), middle school (grades 6-8) and high school (grades 9-12).

The contest is open to all central Indiana students enrolled in grades kindergarten through 12. Last year, winners were selected from Carmel, Indianapolis and Marion.

"We look forward to our annual Holiday Card Contest each year and the many entries we receive from students of all ages," said Buz Nesbit, president of Bright House Networks Indiana.

Complete rules, details and a Contest Entry Form are available online at www.indiana.mybriighthouse.com and at Bright House Networks offices in Indianapolis, Carmel, Avon and Marion. All entries must be postmarked by midnight, Nov. 25.

Winning artwork will be posted to Bright House Networks' Web site and will be available to download as high-resolution computer screensavers for students, parents, family members, teachers and school administrators to enjoy throughout the holidays.
