Bright House Networks Helps Bring Scooby-Doo to the 2009 Indianapolis Home Show

Indianapolis, Ind. – Scooby-Doo, Where are you?!

The popular Great Dane will be appearing in person at the 2009 Indianapolis Home Show thanks to Bright House Networks, a leading provider of digital video, voice and high-speed Internet in Central Indiana.

Bright House Networks is sponsoring Scooby's two-day appearance at the Home Show this weekend only, Feb. 7-8 from 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. He'll make his appearances throughout select areas of the Home Show both Saturday and Sunday.

Star of the Hanna-Barbera cartoons, Scoobert "Scooby"-Doo serves as the canine mascot of Mystery, Inc., formed by friends Shaggy, Fred, Velma and Daphne. Known to be afraid of ghosts, zombies, mummies and even his own shadow, Scooby always manages to come through for the gang — and usually with the encouragement of a Scooby Snack!

"Bright House Networks is excited once again to be involved with the prestigious 2009 Indianapolis Home Show and, thanks to our long-standing partnership with Cartoon Network, we are able to arrange a visit by Scooby-Doo to entertain children who attend the Home Show with their parents and grandparents," said Buz Nesbit, president of Bright House Networks Indiana.

The most recent Scooby-Doo series, Shaggy & Scooby-Doo Get a Clue!, ran from 2006 to 2008 on The CW network. When he's not appearing at this year's Indianapolis Home Show, Scooby-Doo repeats can be seen frequently on the Cartoon Network and Boomerang in the United States and other countries.

The Indianapolis Home Show, scheduled for Friday, January 30 through Sunday, February 8, 2009, at the Indiana State Fairgrounds, continues its 87-year tradition of offering the best in home products, decorating, construction and remodeling ideas for visitors to gather ideas and compare.
