CBS College Sports Network available free to Bright House Networks customers through April 7

INDIANAPOLIS (Tuesday, March 24, 2009) – Central Indiana Bright House Networks customers can catch a free preview of CBS College Sports Network, the official cable home of the NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship, through April 7.

CBS College Sports Network complements CBS Sports' exclusive live network game broadcasts by providing over 75 hours of coverage of the 2009 NCAA Division I Men's Basketball Championship. The network will be available to all central Indiana Bright House Networks digital customers on channel No. 430.

Basic service subscribers can also catch CBS College Sports Network telecast in an analog signal on channel No. 2 in the greater Indianapolis area and on channel No. 9 in Grant County.

CBS College Sports Network presents all the action and excitement surrounding the tournament, including the official highlight show of the tournament, the NCAA March Madness® Highlights powered by Pontiac. Immediately following the conclusion of each day's games on CBS Sports, NCAA March Madness Highlights powered by Pontiac will recap the excitement of the day with all the scores, news, highlights and analysis.

In addition, NCAA March Madness Highlights brings viewers exclusive in-progress game highlights, live look-ins and press conferences from every team at every site from the first-round through the Championship Game.
